SAN LUIS OBISPO, Calif. -- The Cal Poly wrestling team produced four champions in one invitational and one more in another invitational over the week.

At the Meathead Invitational held at Cuesta College, Mustang 149-pounder Nick Fisher, 165-pounder Travis Rasmussen and 174-pounders Ryan Des Roches and Steven Vasquez all earned first-place finishes.

Fisher posted three pins and a technical fall for a 4-0 record and the 149 title while Rasmussen earned two technical falls, a pin and a decision for his 4-0 mark and the 165 crown.

Des Roches won all of his three matches by fall while Vasquez earned a technical fall, a pin and a decision for his 3-0 mark. They did not meet in the 174-pound final and were declared co-champions.

Geoffrey Doss placed third at 157 pounds with two technical falls, a pin and a decision for a 4-1 mark.

At the CBU Open hosted by Cal Baptist, Cal Poly 197-pounder Grant Haschak placed first with a pin, a major decision and two decisions for a 4-0 mark.

Cal Poly will hold its annual Green vs. Gold intrasquad meet Saturday at noon in Mott Gym.
